Protect it, it's yours.

To kick off the Auto Theft Task Force's July initiative to reduce auto crimes, Lieutenant Chris White will hold a press conference to provide statistics on auto burglaries and auto thefts. “Protect it, it's yours” is the new campaign the ATTF, along with the Texas Auto Burglary and Theft Prevention Authority, will be promoting to remind citizens of the belongings they own and how to protect them. Opportunity will be provided to obtain footage of vehicles with the potential for criminal activity.
